Frequently Asked Questions

What are the prerequisites for the class?

It has been found that past training plays a very small role in one's ability to use hypnosis effectively, so there are no prerequisites.

What is the income potential of a Certified Consulting Hypnotist?

Hourly fees vary from $100 to $150 per session upward.

Will I be capable of learning the material?

Yes, yes and YES! The class is broken down into small training sections to ensure that everyone can succeed.

What if I miss a class?

You are able to catch up with that class at no extra cost on the next training.

THE DOUBLE GUARANTEE

You are guaranteed that if, by the luncheon break of the first day you are not satisfied for any reason, return your course materials and receive a full refund AND any past student may re-take any or all classes without additional charge. This policy will ensure continual success of all graduates.

What will I be able to do when I graduate?

You may open your own office offering hypnosis sessions to the general public, contact companies to do corporate programs, conduct sessions for family and friends and for self-improvement - you are only limited by your own imagination!

Many incorporate what they have learned in their current professions, such as nurses, doctors, therapists, chiropractors, massage therapists, sales people, office managers and executives. Learning to create rapport with customers, co-workers and employees is invaluable. Knowing how to word your thoughts properly can be the difference between getting the job done and being shown the door.

Parents benefit greatly when we cover Pediatric Hypnosis. Being able to encourage your children to be the very best that they can be is worth every penny of the class tuition and more! By wording suggestions to your children (telling them what you do want, instead of what you don't want), can enhance their ability to be cooperative and to improve their grades at school.

Every person, no matter what you do for a living, will benefit from Shana Rosenthal's Professional Hypnosis Certification Class. All of the elements that are required to hypnotize a person and to assist them in reaching their goal will be taught in this class.

Some people do hypnosis on a part-time basis, earning extra money for trips, luxuries that they wouldn't be able to afford on their current salaries or to create a retirement program for security in later years. They create their own schedules, so they are in control of how much money they choose to earn.

How do I become a Certified Consulting Hypnotist?

On the last day of class, there is a test. When you pass the test, you receive your Certification.

What happens if I don't pass the test?

You may re-take the test if for some reason you don't pass it on the last day of class. The good news is that most people do pass!

How should I study for the test?

The best suggestion is to go over the workbook from each class and review the information before the next class. Just by reading a few pages each evening helps you to retain the information. Pay special attention to the fill in the blanks. This is information that is important for you to know.

What if I don't have anyone to practice with?

For this reason, we have practice time in class. You get the chance to work with other students who are interested in hypnosis and want to learn. By helping each other, you build confidence.

During the practice time, your Instructor is available to answer your questions and to assist you in learning the techniques. Observation and evaluation of your abilities is achieved during this time when you are more relaxed as you practice with the group. Therefore, you will not need to induce hypnosis as part of the test. Many students get together with someone who works or lives in the same area so they can get more practice time as needed.

Is the class simply lectures?

No. You will learn by seeing, hearing and doing. Shana Rosenthal is a very creative instructor, which makes the days go by quickly. No one is ever bored in one of her classes!

Shana is highly respected in the hypnosis profession and is internationally renowned for her talents and abilities in taking a complex situation and being able to create effective techniques that are simple to implement.

What if I have questions during the class?

Please ask them! If you are thinking about it, chances are someone else is too. The goal is to assist you learn as much as you can so that you are successful in this profession.

How do I start my own business?

Shana Rosenthal started her hypnosis practice in 2009. Since she has been in business that length of time, she is able to share with you what works, as well as what doesn't. This can save you time and money. You will benefit from years of experience.

Thanks to modern hypnotists like Shana Rosenthal, hypnosis is losing the negative stigma that was once attached. The word-of-mouth advertisement spreads quicker with hypnosis than any other profession. Hypnosis is one of the most rapidly growing professions and its recession-proof!

Who Should attend?

Individuals interested in hypnosis normally fall into one of four categories:

1. The first group are those that are looking to become Certified Hypnotists and enter the profession on a full-time basis. These will have the choice of either becoming self-employed and opening their own office or working for an established center. With the public more health conscious today than ever before in history, hypnosis is truly the career of the future. The new hypnotist has the opportunity to earn fees for private sessions, group sessions, self-hypnosis classes and various speaking engagements. The potential is unlimited.
2. The second group are those that are considering hypnosis as a part-time career. They are looking for an avenue to add $300-$600 a week to their present income part-time. The part-time hypnotist has the option of working out of their home, conducting sessions in the client's home or office or to rent an office on an hourly basis.
3. The third group are those that are considering using hypnosis in conjunction with their current occupation or to have something to fall back on. This group is made up of a variety of professions, which include: Nurses Counselors, Police Officers, Psychologists, Hair Stylists, Massage Therapists, Teachers, Salespeople and many others. In today's uncertain times of cut-backs and layoffs, it is more important than ever to be financially self-sufficient. Hypnosis is one of the most rapidly growing professions.
4. Many very successful full-time hypnotists began their training in this fourth category. These are the people who are simply looking for an avenue to improve their own personal lives. They may also work with their own children, other family members or friends in the areas of stress, smoking, weight loss, habits, fears and self-confidence.

Regardless of one's initial reason for learning hypnosis, everyone reports feeling better about themselves and more in control of their own life.
